Welcome
Failte

On behalf of Nemo Rangers, it gives us great pleasure to welcome you all to the fifth annual Jim Cremin Over 35s Football Tournament. It is fantastic to see the tournament reach this milestone, with 13 teams taking part this year, including two Nemo Rangers teams and 11 visiting teams from across Cork and beyond. We are hugely grateful to everyone who has travelled to take part and to those who continue to support this special event.

Five years on, and the reason we come together remains as important as ever. This tournament was established in memory of Jim Cremin, a man who gave so much of his time, energy and passion to Nemo Rangers and to the people around him. Jim's contribution to the club cannot be measured simply by the teams he coached or the years he spent involved. His real legacy lies in the countless friendships he built, the people he encouraged and the lives he influenced along the way.

Jim had a wonderful ability to make people feel valued and supported. Whether you were a young player finding your feet, a teammate looking for advice or simply someone who needed a helping hand, Jim always made time for you. He brought knowledge, humour, encouragement and an unwavering commitment to others, never seeking recognition or reward. That was simply who he was.

While we continue to feel his absence, it is fitting that his memory is honoured through an event that brings people together from different clubs and generations, united by a shared love of football. We hope today's tournament captures something of the spirit Jim brought to the game and to life itself – friendship, camaraderie, generosity and, of course, a healthy bit of competition!

Thank you to all the teams, players, supporters, volunteers and everyone who has helped make this year's tournament possible. Most importantly, we hope you enjoy the day and help us celebrate the memory of a truly special person.

We will get back to town again

Poem by Jim Cremin

We will get back to town again
Cross bridges staging buskers,
As guitar notes dance down our streets
To where the teenagers cluster.

We will get back to town again
As artists paint to power,
There's Banksy's child with a red balloon
And a rifle blocked with a flower.

We will shop, till we drop, in town again
Penny's, Next, Monsoon we'll try,
And its definitely you in those red shoes
And we'll never regret what we didn't buy.

For coffee we'll meet up again
In alleyway cafes with patio heat,
And chocolate cupcakes with cappuccinos
And while our day to a leisurely beat.

The Welsh will come to town again
Clouds slowly forming pints,
And the pub goes silent, as Sexton settles,
And our prayers on that ball take flight.

And Saturday's no longer silent
Busses throttle, taxis blare,
Toddlers tantrum for happy meals,
Theatre-goers fill up our square

We will get back to town again
Children, women, men.
We people of this fighting race
A nation once again.

An event like this doesn't come together on its own, and there are plenty of people who deserve recognition for helping make the fifth annual Jim Cremin Over 35s Tournament possible.

First and foremost, a huge thank you to all 13 teams who have entered this year's competition. We really appreciate the effort involved in getting a team together, organising players and making the journey to Nemo. It's great to see so many familiar faces returning alongside some new additions.

To all the players, we hope the legs hold up, the hamstrings stay intact and the competitive instincts haven't got too rusty!

We would also like to extend our sincere thanks to all our sponsors. Your generosity and support are hugely appreciated and play an important part in making this tournament happen each year.

A special word of thanks goes to everyone within Nemo Rangers who has contributed their time and effort behind the scenes in the lead-up to today. In particular, our ladies committee deserve enormous credit for taking care of the catering and putting in so many hours to ensure everyone is well looked after. Your contribution is invaluable.

Finally, and perhaps most importantly, we would like to thank Jim's family for their continued support and for being part of this tournament every year. It means a great deal to us to have you involved, and we look forward to welcoming you again today as we remember Jim and celebrate his contribution to the club. We are particularly grateful to Denis and the family for presenting the Jim Cremin Cup to the winning captains again this year.

To everyone who has played a part, supported the event or simply come along to enjoy the day, thank you. We hope you have a fantastic day of football, friendship and good company, and that the celebrations continue long after the final whistle!
